Public Comments

Welcome and Introductions

Andrew Crowe, Chair

Orange County Housing
Process Presentation

Doug Becht, Director,
Office of Care Coordination

What Prompted the Review of CES/the Housing Process

- During the Spring and Summer of 2024 several different Groups came to the Office of Care Coordination to voice complaints and concerns about CES.
 - Those Groups included:
 - Public Housing Authorities
 - Developers
 - Elected Officials
 - What their complaints and concerns were:
 - Units were staying open for too long (over a year in some cases).
 - They weren't receiving referrals from CES.
 - People who were matched were not responding.
 - Access Points were slowing down the process with unrealistic appeals.
 - The application period was taking too long because people did not have the documentation or identification needed.

Potential Consequences:

- PHA's stated they would:
 - Remove vouchers from existing PSH projects.
 - No longer participate in CES.

Why this Matters

Office of Care Coordination's Reasons for Concern

- Homelessness is being extended unnecessarily.
- Permanent housing units are being left vacant.
- Potential loss of existing PSH units.
- Public Housing Authorities exiting CES participation.

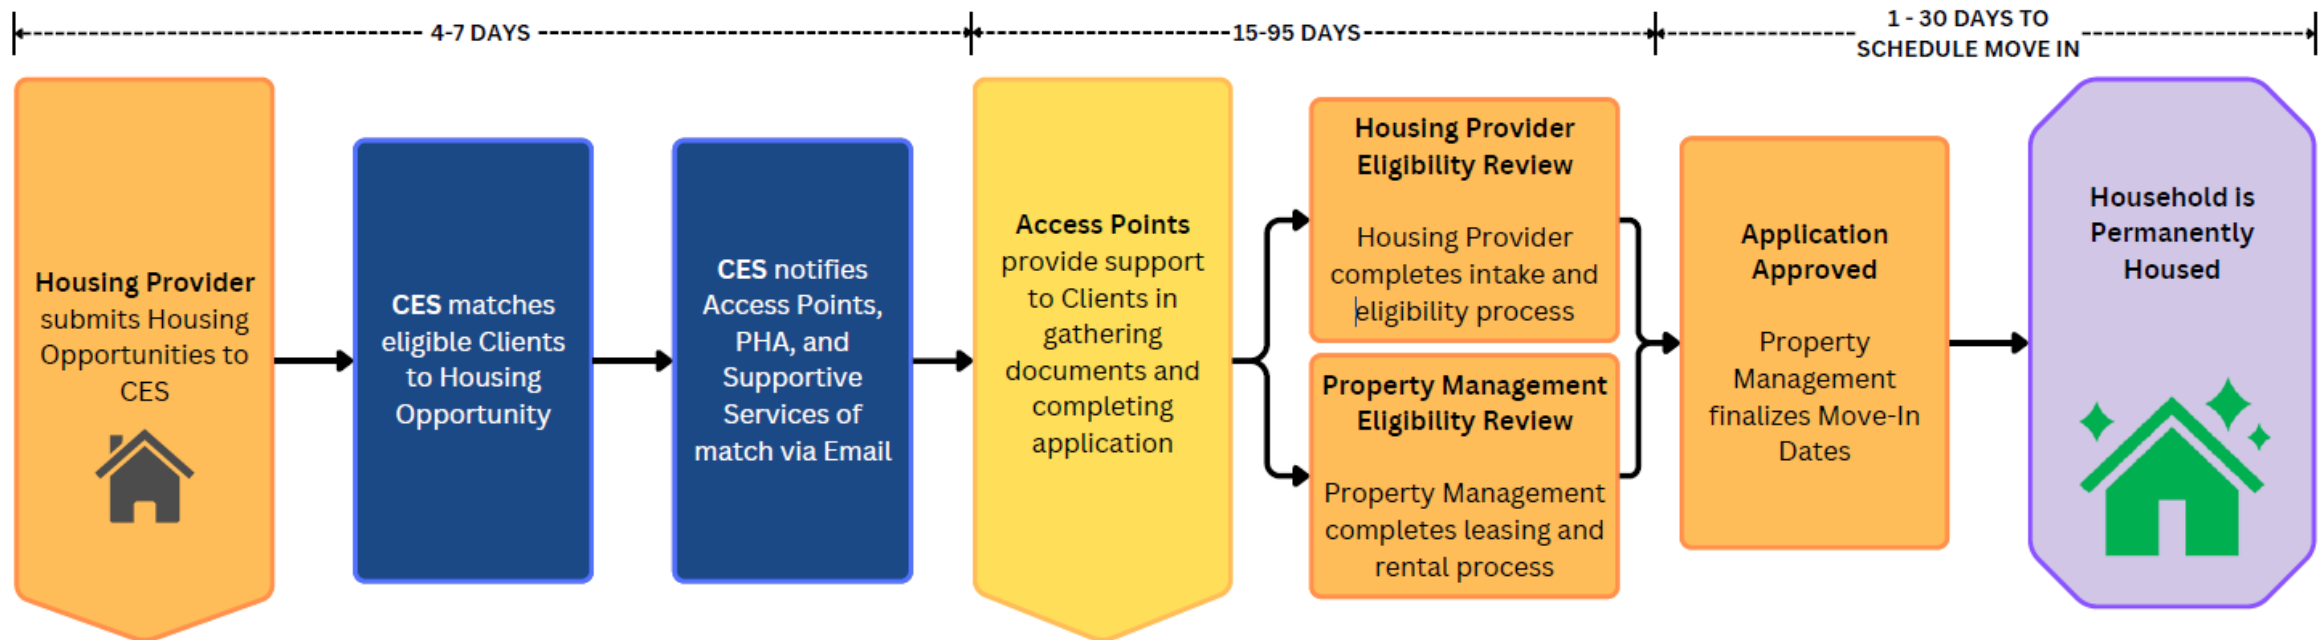

Office of Care Coordination's Investigation

Steps taken to understand the concerns further

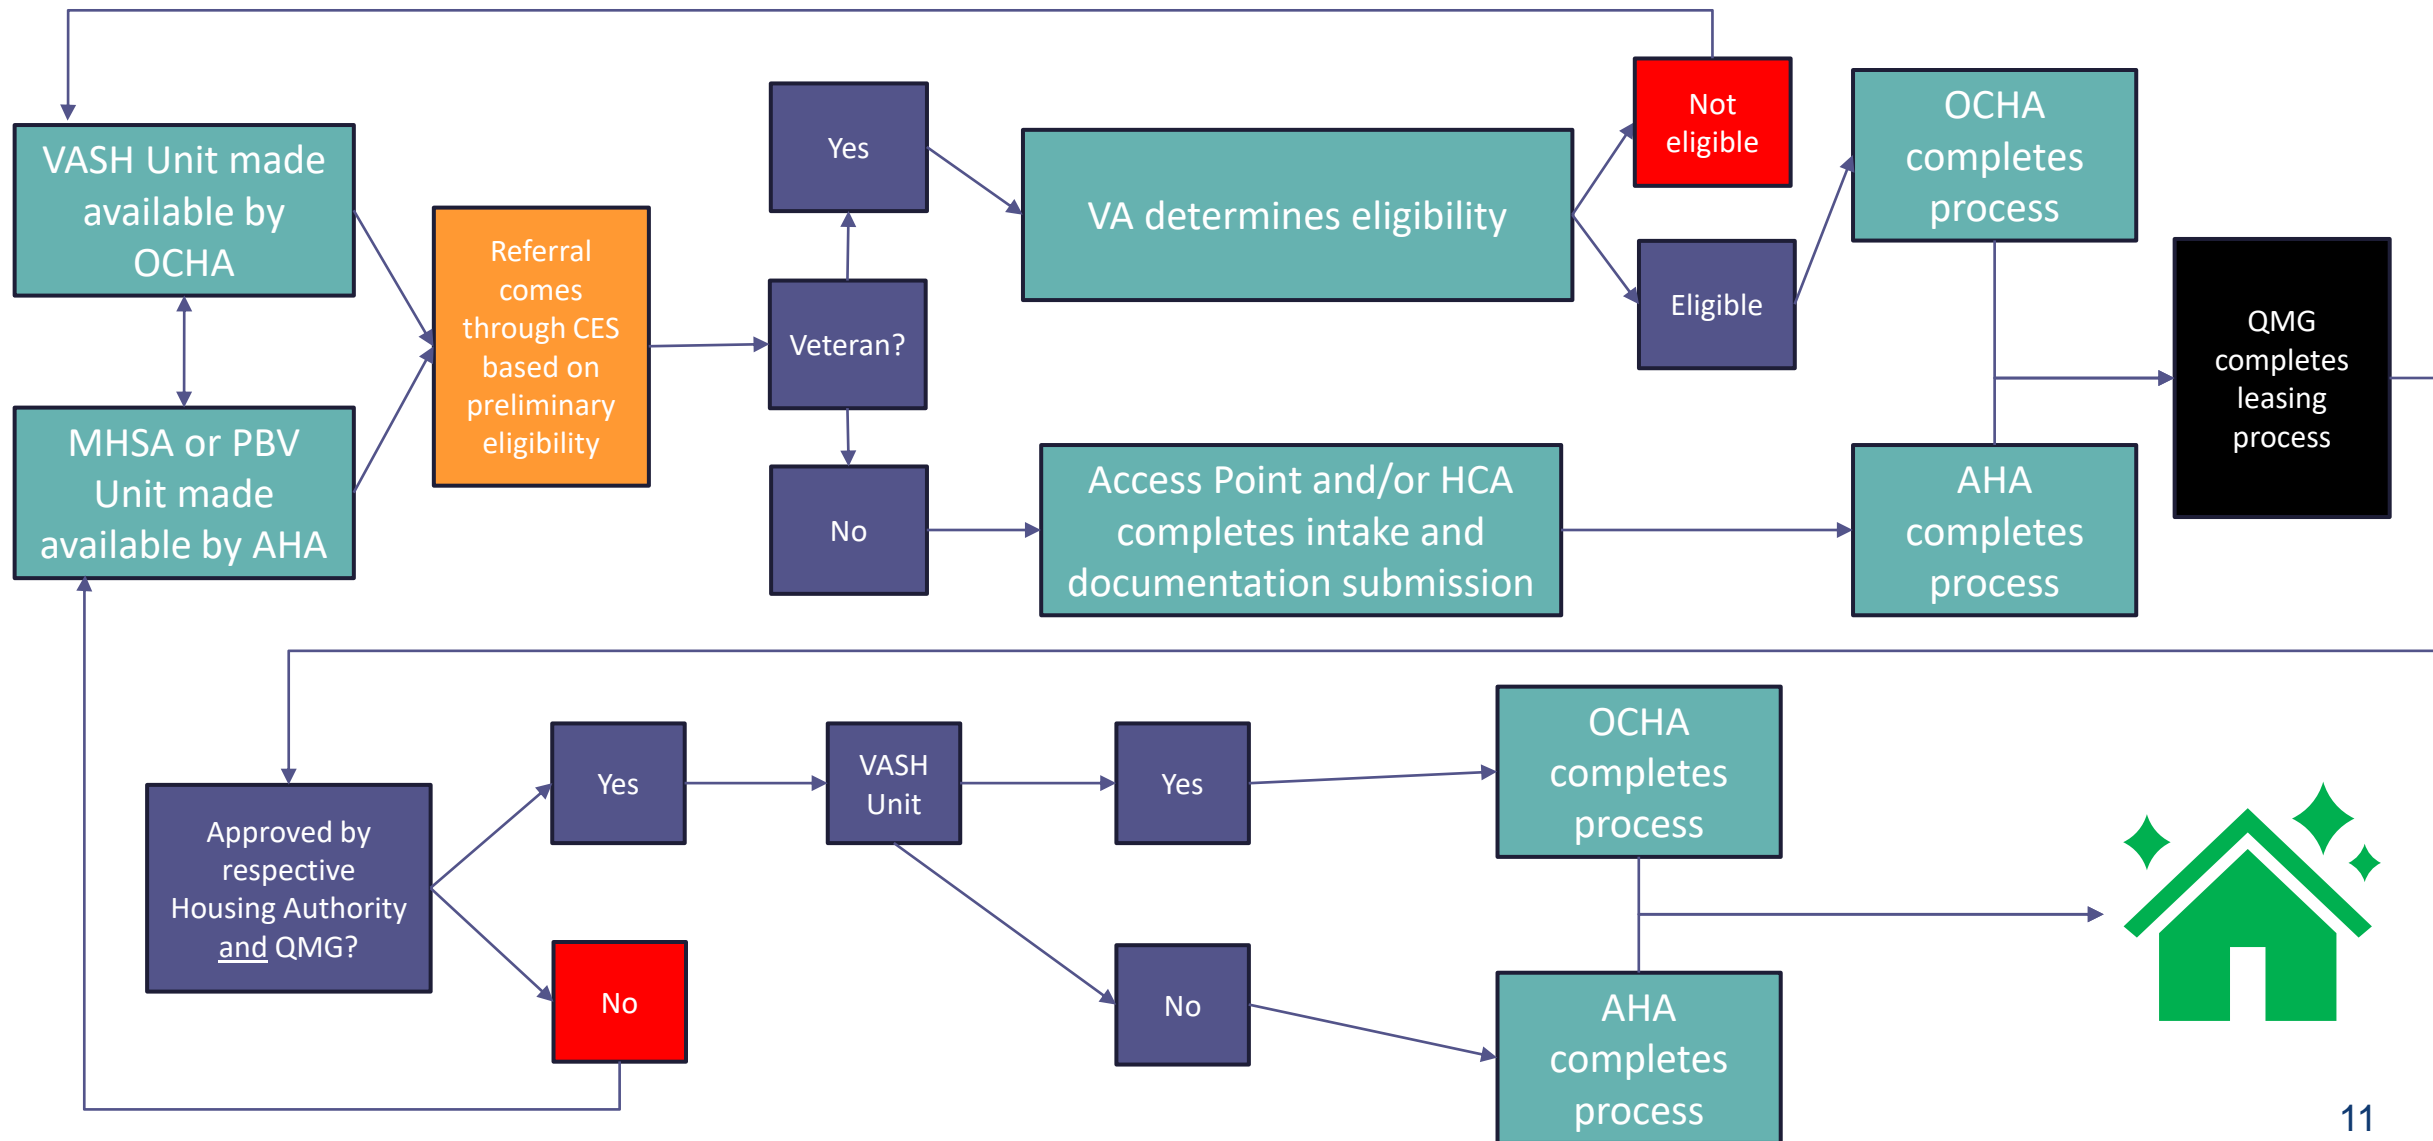

- Continued to meet with concerned group to better identify problems and issues.
- Identified and tracked existing vacancies at properties of greatest concern.
- Reports created to track every match made through the Coordinated Entry System.
- Full review of the process for filling an open unit, as well as obtaining housing.
- Set up re-occurring meetings with ICES lead, Friendship Shelter.

What we Found: #1- It isn't all about CES

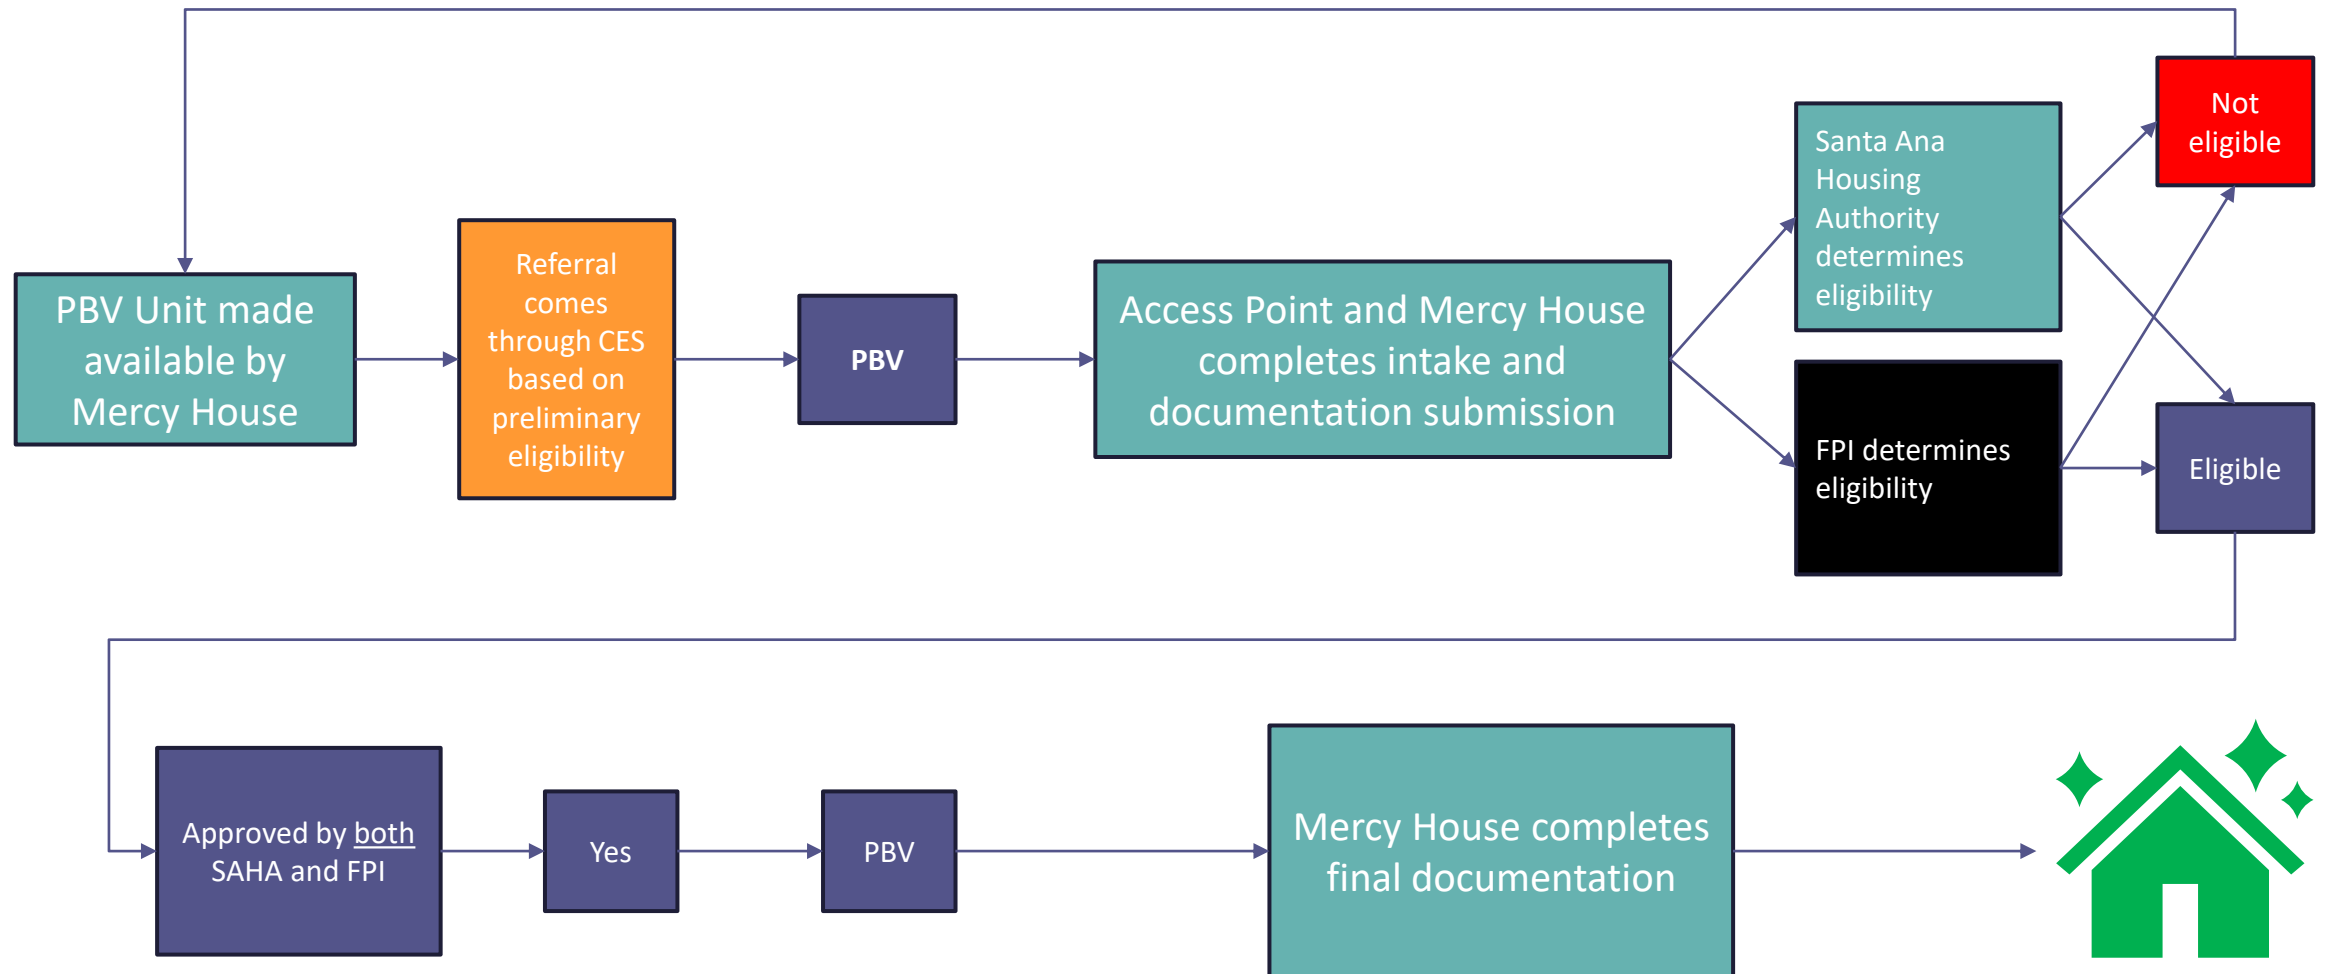

The Housing Process has many different Stakeholders and Steps.

Buena Esperanza – Workflow

What we Found: #5- The Data!

Tracking Each Match

- Starting on July 1, 2024 the Office of Care Coordination began to track every match made throughout the entire Coordinated Entry System
- The Reporting captures the 25 data points per match including:
 - Name
 - Housing Opportunity
 - Access Point
 - Housing Developer and Opportunity
 - Public Housing Authority
 - Date of Match
 - Result of Match
 - Date of Determination
 - MHSA, Senior, TAY or Vet Specific

Multiple Matches for One Opening (2 for 1s)

1. The practice of multiple referrals for a single housing opportunity became unofficially known as 2:1 matches
2. If there were two matched referrals, whoever submitted a completed application first, got priority to the unit, leaving the second matched referral in a state of waiting to find out if the other matched referral would be denied or decline the opportunity to move forward themselves
 1. Each housing authority has a documented case of one match left without a unit that was fully approved by the respective housing authority and property management
 2. Fortunately, each housing authority was able to move these clients to other housing developments within their jurisdiction and found a unit available for move-in
3. This practice of multiple matches does not directly go against approved CoC CES Policies & Procedures, but there are unintended consequences that do go against CES Policies & Procedures
 1. 2:1 matches go against trauma-informed care, and the housing first practice

Future Considerations for the CoC

1. Establishing a formal multiple match policy
2. Consider updating requirements for Community Queue that include possessing documentation that almost all opportunities require (i.e. forms of identification)

In Conclusion: What we need to Remember

We can all do the following things better:

- Ensure our staffs are trained
- Communicate Better
- Hold ourselves accountable to the process
- Look at ourselves before we look at others when it comes to solutions

Most Importantly, the people we have committed to serving are relying on us!

Business Calendar – Item #3

Feedback from the Lived Experience Advisory Committee

- Continuums of Care (CoCs) are responsible for developing local policies governing CES – such as eligibility, prioritization, and engagement standards. The most recent version of the Orange County CES Policies and Procedures was approved by the CoC Board on December 20, 2023, and includes a policy regarding inactivity on the CES Community Queue (CQ) (90-Day Inactivity Policy)
- Goal and intention of the 90-Day Inactivity Policy:
 - ❖ Maintain an accurate, up-to-date prioritization list of participants actively seeking housing and supportive services
 - ❖ Promote an effective, efficient system, reducing delays in referrals and connections to resources
- However, members from the Lived Experience Advisory Committee (LEAC) have noted that the policy may penalize individuals for factors outside their control, create additional barriers to getting connected to housing, and add more layers of bureaucracy within CES.

Business Calendar – Item #3

Feedback from the Lived Experience Advisory Committee

- During the September 4, 2024, LEAC Meeting, the Office of Care Coordination (OCC) and Vice Chair Paul Kaiser, facilitated a discussion on the purpose and impact of the 90-Day Inactivity Policy on participants enrolled on CES CQ. The conversation generated several key ideas, including:
 - ❖ Improving and standardizing case manager trainings regarding CES policies and processes;
 - ❖ Emphasizing the importance of clearly informing participants about the 90-Day Inactivity Policy to encourage active engagement; and
 - ❖ Ensuring a process for reactivating a participants CES CQ status after a period of inactivity is widely known and understood by both case management staff and participants.
- On January 9, 2025, OCC as the CoC Administrative Entity presented two recommendations aimed at fostering cross-committee collaboration. The LEAC membership unanimously approved Vice Chair Paul Kaiser, as a representative of the LEAC, to attend an upcoming CES Steering Committee meeting to
 1. Recommend a review of the CES Policies and Procedures, specifically, the policy that states CES participants will be made inactive on the CES CQ after 90 days of non-engagement, and
 2. Explore potential policy revisions and training ideas.

Feedback from the Lived Experience Advisory Committee

Next Steps and Continued Collaboration

- The CES Steering Committee is being asked to continue collaborating with the LEAC on potential revisions to the CES Policies and Procedures and training ideas, to ensure a CoC-wide understanding of how CES operates.
