County of Orange Reminds Residents, Visitors to Remain Vigilant Against COVID-19 This Labor Day Weekend

Santa Ana, Calif. (September 3, 2020) – With the upcoming Labor Day weekend, we understand that many Orange County residents and visitors alike will be visiting our beaches, parks and will be with their friends and loved ones.

To help get the word out to stay safe this Labor Day weekend, the County of Orange is using digital web banners and social media to help spread the word driving people to ohealthinfo.com/slowthespread website for downloadable Facebook, Twitter and Instagram posts anyone can use.

Beach-goers, park enthusiasts and other celebrants this weekend are asked to please make sure to adhere to the County's health orders making sure you are physically distanced and wearing face coverings whenever inside or in close quarters.

To find out more about how we can all work together to slow the spread of COVID-19, go to ohealthinfo.com/slowthespread.
